

Keep Your Food Service Business Running Safely and Efficiently

Whether you run a restaurant, commercial kitchen, food service operation, or a catering business, you will benefit from working with Cogent Solutions & Supplies. We offer a broad selection of competitively priced food service products, janitorial, and sanitation supplies and quality packaging that supports all your programs to ensure profitable, efficient, and safe food production and sales growth.

A Consultative Approach

Our Cogent account representatives deliver a better experience for you through a consultative approach that puts our expertise and resources to work for your food service operation. You will benefit from:

- Friendly, personalized service from a dedicated account representative who understands your business and is committed to partnering for your continued success
- Inventory management and warehousing options that reduce your need for additional onsite storage
- Equipment recommendations as well as maintenance and repair service options that can optimize your operations and reduce costly downtime
- Products that align with your company sustainability goals and the refuse guidelines for waste in your area
- Creative solutions that showcase your products best presentation while ensuring that the food quality and safety are a priority

Your Single-Source Food Service Supplier

In addition to providing all the packaging, service, support, equipment, and repair you need, Cogent offers comprehensive lines of foodservice disposables and janitorial and sanitation products. With competitive pricing and dependable service, you can turn to Cogent as your single-source supplier for products that include:

- Extensive sustainable and eco-friendly options for packing and supplies
- Takeout and grab-and-go packaging
- Disposable plates, cutlery, napkins, and dispensers
- Cups, glasses, and bottles
- Catering supplies
- Paper and plastic bags
- Commercial dishwashing detergents and supplies
- Concentrated chemicals for all your sanitation needs
- Paper products
- Floor care products
- Disposable healthcare and kitchen apparel
- Office supplies
- And much more!

Contact us today to learn more about our food service products and solutions to simplify your operations and build your brand while also supporting your food safety programs and increased profitability.

About Cogent Solutions & Supplies

At Cogent, we deliver more than supplies. We help you clearly see opportunities to optimize your operations, enhance your customer experience, and ultimately support your profitability. Whether you need guidance on equipment, advanced inventory management, forecasting support or design solutions, we are ready to help you with clarity and expertise.