

Grocery Solutions That Nourish Your Success

We help grocers effectively meet the growing consumer demand for fresh, healthy, and natural foods. The right packaging is essential to take advantage of the changing market in areas such as prepared foods, hot and cold bars, and grab-and-go sales. We provide a full spectrum of packaging, products, and solutions that help you tap this opportunity.

A Consultative Approach

At Cogent, you will have a dedicated, knowledgeable, and experienced account representative to help you stay ahead of the curve. We will ensure you have the solutions to support the success of your stores, along with insight into trends and product innovations that include:

- New packaging solutions that enhance visual appeal and marketability
- Eco-friendly packaging solutions that are sustainable, compostable, or recyclable
- Custom packaging and merchandising solutions that build your brand and showcase your products
- Experienced guidance for effective forecasting, optimal merchandising, usage, and availability

Reliable Logistics Support

We understand that storage space is at a premium but that you can't afford to miss a sale because you don't have the right packaging in stock. So we proactively support your needs with:

- Smart inventory management
- Reliable on-time delivery
