

Packaging Solutions That Enhance Your Business

Seeking out the lowest price on packaging can leave manufacturers and distributors without the solutions that truly reduce their overall costs and improve their operational processes. Cogent Solutions & Supplies has the know-how, products, and experience to help your business choose the optimal packaging for efficiency, profitability, and productivity.

Experience the Benefits of Enhanced Packaging Engineering

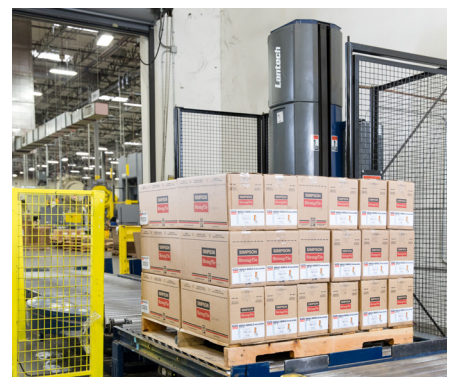

Let our sales consultants partner with you to design packaging that protects and adds value when shipping your products. Our team of packaging engineering experts will:

- Reduce overall shipping costs through innovative package evaluations and redesigns.
- Use a material neutral approach to strategically reduce product loss and associated costs.
- Improve palletization for efficiency and improved shipping.

Streamline Your Logistics

We can assist in improving your logistics and decreasing the need for storage space in your production facility through:

- Strategic inventory forecasting and management
- Offsite warehousing of your packaging materials
- Frequent, reliable, on-time deliveries
- Highest quality products and solutions that fit every need

Optimize Labor Efficiency

We offer guidance and expertise on how you can use automation to save money and reduce or reallocate man-hours by:

- Helping you deploy strategic packaging automation initiatives
- Providing and maintaining your packaging automation equipment
- Offering cost-saving equipment rental options for key production periods

One Source for All the Products You Need

In addition to guiding you to the right products and solutions that provide the lowest total cost, we also carry the breadth of products necessary to be the single-source provider for your facility. We can supply everything from packaging solutions to janitorial and sanitation supplies and more. Our offerings include:
